Beautiful, Evocative Drawing of Togonal Images By John Lumiere-Wins Luminous Heart of Inner Radiance - Drawings of The Togonal Visions by Robert and Rachel Olds Spiritually focused artists Robert and Rachel Olds culminated a lifelong Earth based spiritual path of meditative practice by going on an 8 year retreat practicing Tibetan Buddhism's and Bon's highest visionary path of Togonal. Along the way, they documented with skilled, sensitive drawings documenting the unfolding progression of the four stages of Togonal visions. To my knowledge, nothing of this kind has ever been presented in the public domain before. Also distinctive in publishing these beautiful images of the Togonal visions and their accompanying volume describing the actual practices that took them up to and through the path of Togonal, Primordial Grace - Earth, Original Heart and The Visionary Path of Radiance, Rob and Rachel strip Togonal of its here-to-fore religious and cultural baggage and restore it to its primordial, grounded in the Earth, roots. I realize this will be seen by some as a controversial description of a controversial act but surely, the Togonal process of seeing the essential nature of the spontaneous presence of the primordially pure innate is antecedent to all forms of culture and all -isms. Personally, the powerfully gentle and sensitive images in this volume deepened my faith and quickened my spirit. They led me to contact Rob and embark on this remarkable journey. In my experience, as the visions are beginning to develop, this process is increasingly engaging. I am gratefully finding myself silenced, awed and wanting to practice more than ever before in my 40 + years of spiritual focus. Enjoy!

By Daniel Christophe A friend of mine offered this book to Tenzin Namdak, actual head of Bouml;n lineage, supposed to achieve rainbow body when he will leave. He didn't seem so much interested and said that the drawings are correct, but "something is missing. They didn't get the fruit", i.e. they won't achieve rainbow body. Now, the question is "what" ? Maybe we have a first clue, in the fact that their approach is totally naturalist. There is only earth, nature, light... Where are the buddha fields, the revelations, the transmissions, one is supposed to get with the third vision ? Just read the life of Shardza Rinpoche and others. It's totally different. Apparently it is possible to get the visions (or a part of them) without getting the real meaning. Because, according to many teachings, there is no "matter" in the universe, only "beings" (what we call matter being allegedly
